Budget Update: Funds at 2,076.76

Principals Update: Made by C. Cummings (Assistant Principal)

- Title 1 funds are purchasing more pre-AP springboard curriculum for our reading classes.
- All administrators will be attending a 3 day training in Orlando during the summer.
- Oslo will be purchasing signs for our Believe in Blue Motto- posters will be bought.
- We have plenty of Parent involvement activities- make sure that you are checking social media and receiving school messengers.
- OMS Olympics will be held in February and free information and gifts will be given (books)
- Last week we had our grade level ceremonies for the first semester. Students and parents had a great time.
- Sport schedules for spring are out. Check the school website.
- Last week students participated in the Celebrate Literacy and everyone dropped what they were doing and read for 30 minutes.
- We are continuing to create a positive climate by bringing down the referral. Overall 534 ODR- last year 1,767. 6th grade had 196 and last year 686, 7th grade has 154 and last year 527, 8th grade 184 and last year 554.
- School attendance has improved from last year. Last year students were at 88% and this year they are 93%.

School Choice:

- By continuing the positive climate and creating a safe environment it will help increase school choice for next year. Starting next year students will have a choice of which school. By showcasing the positive climate it will enhance school choice.

Funds Request:

- Ms. Schwager requested funds for the 6th grade PBS and has requested that the money (500.00) be returned and possibly reallocated to a school wide Spring Fling Idea. Motion made by S. McGary. 2nd by A. Colonna. All approved.

- Mr. Wiley will be returning 70.42 from the overage from the Art Frames from the January meeting. Mr. Wiley was approved up to 375.00.
