 - 9/25, 10/30, 11/27, 1/29, 2/26, 3/19, 4/30

Principals Update:

- Projection of students is at 860, and we are currently at 843. 8th grade is the smallest grade level, but we have over 300 6th graders.
- Unified dress is going well. Principal Hofer has received many positive comments from students and parents.
- School Spirit Shirts and hoodies are being sold. Please see the front office for order forms.

- Believe Academy is our project based learning academy. Teachers in the Believe academy will be creating lesson plans with other core subjects that are standards based with real world application.
- JDO Foundation is a global partnership that pairs teachers with teachers in other countries to collaborate on lesson plans. Joanna Roux and Mike Martin have been selected with their 6th grade world culture class. JDO only partners with two schools per state. Oslo and VBE are the schools for Florida.

Title 1:

- Parent Involvement Plan was explained and showed
- Parents were afforded the time to give feedback on the Parent Involvement Plan
- Principal Hofer introduced the Parent Compact and the SAC committee liked her idea of adding that if a parent noticing a struggling grade at progress report time then parents will enlist help from our tutoring programs
