

SAC Meeting
Jan. 15, 2019
3:45- 4:30

Janine Jones called the meeting at 3:45. Attendance: Janine Jones, Kevin Oberlink, Amber DelTufo, Melissa Brown, Michael Greto, Le Kooc, Curtis Carpenter, Nate Bruckner, Cecilia Larroude Lloyd, and Gina Medina Malave.

Approval of Minutes- A motion was made by Nate Bruckner to approve the minutes and seconded by Curtis Carpenter.

Parent Survey- Janine passed out a copy of the parent survey. She asked us to look at the quality of questions asked, and whether any should be removed and added. Cecelia Lloyd recommended we have a question regarding whether the services your child needs are provided at the school your child attends. Nate Bruckner suggested there be a question about drop off and pick up procedures at the school. Curtis Carpenter thought there should be a question regarding early care and after care. Michael Greto thought there should be a question about whether curriculum utilized, addresses Florida Standards and meets children's needs. Le Kooc thought question 14 should be revamped to address school safety. The survey will no longer be available on web page. It is available on FOCUS now.

Singapore Math: We looked at a copy of the annual Singapore Math Training Costs, provided by Scott Simpson, and there was some question regarding how much we were getting from the Ed. Foundation. Nate Bruckner said he will call them tomorrow to confirm. Nate will also clarify with Scott with several questions: Is Sarah's training coming out of this budget? Clarification on dates, Profit / Loss, and an annual projected budget.

PTA Report- Wooden Roses go on sale tomorrow through 2/8. Skate Night is this Thursday, Spirit Sticks go on sale 1/24 and the Yearbook deadline on dedication sales is that day as well. Shamrock Shuffle (Fun Run) is 3/15. The Glow Dance is 1/25 and all funds will go to support Science.

Old Business- He will look into finding pricing for different size banners to put in the car loop. Nate will also reach out to Beau Forbes at Ironside Press.

Meeting adjourned at 4:30.
