Call to Order: 3:45 p.m.

Review of minutes from September meeting. Motion to approve minutes made by Meredith Tatro, seconded by Jackie Ogilvie. All in favor. None opposed.

Principal's Report/ Good News:

Mr. Racine discussed our overall student achievement gains with over 30% of the student body with perfect attendance.

Teachers were commended for the use of the progress monitoring system on Focus, keep students informed of days absent and achievement data. Unit Assessment data reveals that S.R.M.S. has the highest scores in the district on 7 out of 13 areas assessed.

Girls volleyball tournament was held on Saturday (13th) at the I.G. Center. Spirit week and the pep rally sponsored by the student council was a success, while 164 kids went bowling for completing the principal's challenge. The S.R.M.S. choir had its first concert at the First Baptist Church in Vero Beach which was a success.

Funding Request:

Dr. Patten and John Lundberg, representative from Renaissance, made a funding request for the myOn Reader Digital Library Platform of $4,865. Motion to delay funding request until the next SAC meeting was made by Marie Taglione, seconded by Mr. Brown. All in favor. None opposed.

Mrs. Contri made a funding request of $450 to pay for substitute teachers for coverage during support facilitators training on Nov.1st. Motion was made by Jackie Ogilvie, seconded by Marie Taglione. All in favor. None opposed.
