- ❖ Membership Report

Mrs. Tatro reviewed existing SAC demographics. She needs to confirm with Chris Taylor from district if 8% OK. We may be one over in the Caucasian field. SAC Committee needs to be balanced and diversified with school's ethnicity. She suggested keeping existing members, so we don't change the numbers as of yet. We need 11 Members at every meeting (quorum) to vote and approve items.
- ❖ School Recognition Funds Discussions

Mrs. Tatro provided committee with a handout from the FLDOE (See Attached) with General Information and a Q & A in reference to recognition money. Mrs. Tatro explained we need to put together a Subcommittee for "A" Money ballot. The Committee will exist of teachers & staff. We have until February 1st to distribute the money. Mrs. Powell asked when the 1st ballot was going to be distributed. Mrs. Tatro advised first ballot will go out week of September 23rd. Mrs. Powell and Ms. Philips questioned to why they were not voted onto the SAC committee. Neither recalled vote at August Faculty meeting. Mr. Racine explained how ethnicity works and why they were not added into the membership as they had 3 Caucasian teachers currently on the board (Taglione, Tatro & Ogilvie). As previously mentioned, members need to be diversified based on student demographics. Mrs. Powell asked why members can "Roll Over" to the next year and shouldn't everyone have an opportunity to be on committee? Mrs. Tatro talked about possibly amending bylaws next year to reflect teacher term limits, but also explained that interested faculty are voted in every year. The amount of faculty that may serve on SAC is dependent upon the number of total parent/community members on SAC as the majority of SAC must be comprised of this group.

Mr. Crespo suggested we take another vote, just for teachers during their Personal Development meeting on Wednesday September 18th. Ballots are to look like:

Please choose 3 up to 3 in each category

White	African American	Hispanic	Asian
Marie Taglione	Ken Brown	Robert Crespo
Jackie Ogilvie		Karen Pagan
