Old Business

- a) SAC funds – current balance is $5,116.01

New Business:

- a) Conference Night- the week of 2/13 will be when teachers will hold conferences and 2/16 will be conference night. The times will be from 4-7 p.m. and the book fair will be open that night for parents and students to purchase books.
- b) Friday Fest – Glendale, along with a few other schools, will be at the table set up by the district. The times will be from 6-9p.m. at the Downtown Vero 14th Ave area.
- c) Family Math Engagement Night – this will be a nighttime event for parents to come with their students. There will be booths with one or two activities from each grade level. There will also be an area where parents can learn how to access the new math curriculum online.
- d) Garden Grant – Farm Bureau has awarded Glendale a grant of $250.00 to be used for gardens on campus. A local individual has also donated money to upgrade the landscaping in our campus courtyard.
- e) Parent Engagement Survey - Ms. Flores explained the results of the survey. She highlighted the top two needs that parents are most concerned about and what programs are being funded with our Title 1 money.
- f) Data Update – Ms. Flores explained the data that tells us where Glendale is ranked currently in relation to other schools in the district. Our current ranking is 9th.

Unscheduled Topics

- a) PTA Valentine Cookies – Molly spoke about the PTA selling Valentine cookies from Chick-fil-A from February 6th to the 10th. Flyers will be sent home with students in their Thursday folders. This was a success last year.

b) Spring Skate Night – PTA skate night will be on March 16th from 6p.m. -8p.m.

Next meeting will be February 21st , 2022.
