III Principal's Report:

Mr. Miller spoke about students getting toys from the community, (CHS) Children Home Society, TBLB Fitness, (TCCH) Treasure Coast Community Health, First Pres. Church the toys will be given to all students at Dodgertown in grades Pre-K-Grade 5. This is exciting to see the smiles on all the students faces when they receive the gifts.

Mrs. Paterson filled in for Ms. Vernet, She spoke about the Moonshot Academy Showcase, and the literacy support that The Learning Alliance has with our school district. Mrs. Patterson shared that we had a great turn out with parents who came to see their child perform and hear about the way Dodgertown and Moonshot supports literacy in grades 1-3.

Mrs. Patterson spoke about the K-2 Holiday Sing Along and counted 147 families came out to see their child perform and this was a record number for our K-2 families. We are proud of the support and engagement from our families.

Mrs. Patterson spoke about the K-2 STAR assessment and the 3-5 FAST assessment in ELA and Math. Our students worked hard, and improvement is showing in the results of the data. Students are making growth in ELA and Math.

We had no request for funds at this time.
