

SDIRC Mindset Monday

November 9th, 2020

Virtual through Teams

Virtual Mindset Monday Sessions

4:00-4:10	Greetings from Curriculum & Instructions
4:10-4:30	Infusing African American Studies with an insight into the K-12 comprehensive approach. Mrs. Ataaba Patterson Appointed to the African American History Task Force for the Florida Department of Education
4:30-5:00 (30min. Sessions)	Block Scheduling Anitra Cummings and Terri Beckham We will be dissecting the “I Do”, “We Do”, and “You Do” part of learning with a focus on how to use collaborative strategies that will lend to engagement and effective monitoring.	Owning the Room Beth Hofer A PD for Substitute teachers In this session you will learn some effective strategies for classroom management, customer service, and engagement that can be applied to any classroom.
4:30-5:00 (30min. Session)	Q & A Session April Perez Collaborate and Celebrate Bring successes and any questions you may have.
5:00-5:30 (30min. Sessions)	Spotlight on Teaching Engagement Ashley Bangert and Dr. Colleen Lord How to use plickers, and a variety of formative assessments to monitor and differentiate instruction.	GALE Publishing Article Leslie Connelly and Fran McDonough Making a Different: Carol Ann Tomlinson explains how differentiated instruction works and why we need it now Password: Student

Free DONUTS to the School with the Highest Percentage of Participants