Parents can toggle between the 3 grade level classes (Ancient World, Government Alive, and United States through Industrialism) by clicking on the down arrow next the their username and selecting "classes" to go between the 3 programs.

A screenshot of the 'Government Alive!' website interface. The top navigation bar is blue and contains the text 'Government Alive! Power, Politics, and You' on the left and 'P. Middle School' on the right. Below the navigation bar, there are several menu items: 'Table of Contents', 'Text', 'Notebook', 'Reading Challenge', 'Scores', and 'Glossary Cards'. On the right side of the page, there is a 'Sign Out' button and a 'Help' button. A red box highlights the 'Classes' button, which is located below the 'Help' button. The main content area features a 'Table of Contents' section with a thumbnail image of a sailboat. Below this, there are two main sections: '1 The Nature of Power, Politics, and Government' with an essential question 'Why should you care about power, politics, and government?' and '2 Comparing Forms of Government'.
